

Information for Licensees

Continuing Education

Twenty-eight (28) hours of continuing education (CE) are required in order to renew your license. If your license was approved on or after 11/1/03, see Rules and Regulations for prorated CE schedule. The rules are available on <http://www.dpr.delaware.gov>. Seven of the hours must be the 7-hour National USPAP Update Course. All CE must be completed between 11/1/03 and 10/31/05.

Late Renewal

If your renewal is not post-marked on or before 10/31/05, your license will lapse and you will not be allowed to practice until your license is renewed. You may renew late within 12 months of the expiration date. To renew late, you will be required to pay a late fee in addition to meeting all of the other requirements. If you fail to renew your license within 12 months, you must re-apply for licensure.

Inactive Status

The Council's new statute provides for an inactive status; however, the rules and regulations providing for this have not yet been finalized. If you wish to enter inactive status, you may at this time; however, the length of this status, requirements for maintaining this status, and requirements to return to active status have not yet been finalized. You will be notified of the requirements following their effective date. If you wish to select inactive status, you must submit a written request along with this renewal form and proof of your completed continuing education for the November 1, 2003- October 31, 2005 period. No payment is required. While your license is on inactive status, you will not be allowed to practice until your license is returned to active status.

Appraiser Seminar

Registration forms for the Council's Annual seminar have been mailed. This year's seminar, which will provide an overview on the New Fannie Mae forms, will be held September 20, 2005, at Polytech Adult Education Conference Center in Woodside, DE. Earl Loomis will be the guest speaker.

Council Newsletter

The first edition of the Council's newsletter has been posted to the Council's website located at www.dpr.delaware.gov.